Business and Marketing

Careers in Accounting, Business Administration or Management require students to be innovative, creative, and good at problem-solving. This pathway will provide focused training, on the theories and principles of accounting, finance, statistics, marketing, economics, human resource functions, and decision making. Students who complete a college degree and credentials are better prepared to navigate the world of work. Investigate the specific pathways that interest you and discover the career you’ve dreamed of.

Programs of Study

Accounting

Business / Management

Funded by Carl Perkins Grant