The Exhibit Tour of ALWAYS LOST:

A Meditation on War

Always Lost is a unique collection of photographs, poems, and prose that recognizes the ultimate sacrifice of our American troops in Iraq and Afghanistan. Retired Marine Corps Major Kevin Burns titled the exhibit after an observation by American writer Gertrude Stein: "War is never fatal but always lost. Always lost."

A sacred space in which to contemplate the personal effects of war, Always Lost features the Wall of the Dead, photos and names of over 5,000 American service members who have perished in the Middle East since September 11, 2001; the literary work they inspired; Pulitzer Prize-winning combat photos by David Leeson and Cheryl Meyer (Dallas Morning News); interviews and portraits of Western Nevada College Iraq/Afghanistan student-veterans; and poetry and a profile of SPC Noah Pierce, who took his own life after serving two tours in Iraq.

Your donation will support the effort to send Always Lost throughout the U.S. to the colleges, universities, and veterans' groups who are requesting the exhibit, beginning with the University of Wisconsin, Marinette (fall 2010), and the University of Nevada, Reno.
