NEWS

Wildcats Baseball Players are in Demand
Six Western baseball players will sign National Letters of Intent Wednesday, Nov. 12, to play for Division One and NAIA colleges, in a noon ceremony at the Dini Student Center on the Carson City Campus. The addition of this year’s players makes a total of 20 former Wildcats who have signed with four-year programs since May of 2006. At right, Head Coach D.J. Whittemore checks the team lineup.
http://www.wnc.edu/athletics/baseball/

WNC Fallon Setting Up Food Pantry
Counselor Ronnie Gibbs of the Fallon Campus is setting up an emergency food pantry for students who need assistance. The food packages will provide the basics for three meals and will include a list of community resources. Associated Students of Western Nevada at Fallon conducted a coin drive to get the pantry off the ground. Food has been ordered and assistance packages will be assembled. Faculty and staff who know students that are struggling should refer them to Ronnie. Cash donations to keep the food bank going would also be appreciated.

EVENTS

WNMTC Presents Glorious “South Pacific”
Carson City Community Center
Weekends through November 23 -7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday
Cost: $14 youth, $16 students and seniors, $18 general admission
Tickets and Information: 445-4249

The Western Nevada Musical Theatre Company presents Rodgers and Hammerstein’s Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, "South Pacific." The play brings to life two love stories set in the Polynesian Islands during World War II with a powerhouse, big-Broadway score, including "There is Nothing Like a Dame," "Some Enchanted Evening," and "Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair."

"Around the World in 90 Minutes" – A Free Lecture
Thursday, Nov. 20, 7 p.m.
Cedar Building – Marlette Hall, WNC Carson City
Award-winning author Marty Essen took more than three years to visit all seven continents in search of rare and interesting wildlife. He took thousands of photos during his travels and shares the best in a high-energy digital slide show. The lecture is part of the "Faces, Voices & Stories" cultural series sponsored by the Office of Student Life and Associated Students of Western Nevada.
Holiday Choir Concert – Songs of the Season
A free event presented by Western Nevada College Choir
When: Tuesday, Dec. 9, 7:30-9:30 p.m.
Where: Sarah Winnemucca Hall, Aspen Building, Carson Campus
Information: Chelsie Hamtak, 445-3290
Year after year, one of the most appreciated events on campus is the Holiday Concert directed by Bill Zabelsky and performed by the college choir. As always, the director mixes in traditional favorites and holiday music that may not have been heard for a while. Seasonal songs to be performed include “The Hands of Winter,” “Midwinter’s Chill,” “Deck the Halls,” and many more.

ARTS
College Gallery Exhibit: Works by Candace Nicol
"Postures and Parts: The Male Nude"
November 17-January 9; Reception: Wednesday, Nov. 19 – 4:30-6:30 pm
Don't miss a fascinating exhibit by artist Candace Nicol that includes a variety of techniques, from digital photography and etching to screen printing and glazing. The artist will be on campus all day on Wednesday, Nov. 19, offering workshops at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. in Aspen 210 and meeting with groups of students, as well as interested visitors, in the Carson City campus gallery. This project is funded, in part, by a grant from the Nevada Arts Council, a division of the Department of Cultural Affairs, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

CAMPUS LIFE
ASWN Sponsors Halloween Blood Drive
The Associated Students of Western Nevada was "out to take your blood" on its Halloween blood drive. Blood is especially needed because donations drop off as people get caught up in the holiday season. Each pint is separated into components that help up to three people. Whole blood is needed by those undergoing surgery. Leading by example is ASWN President Andy Pozun.

Time to Support Wildcats Athletics
Annual Wildcats Athletics Fund-raiser
Friday, Jan. 16, 2009
Cost: $100 per ticket, or $700 per table of eight
Information: WNC Foundation: 445-3240
Guest speaker will be Adam Silver, deputy commissioner and chief operating officer for the National Basketball Association. Silver, who has been with the NBA for more than 14 years, oversees NBA Entertainment which comprises all of the NBA and WNBA's television, merchandising, Internet, marketing and communications, publishing, marketing partnerships, media sales, and event management. Evening includes dinner and silent auction. Plan now to help raise funds for our baseball and softball teams!