

American Sign Language Certificate of Completion

Program Outcomes Matrix

Upon completing the American Sign Language Certificate of Completion program, students will be able to:

Outcomes
1	Produce basic expressive/receptive sign language communicative skills
2	Demonstrate appropriate ASL linguistic and grammatical structure in signing
3	Demonstrate functional language aptitude in American Sign Language
4	Produce basic expressive/receptive signing of personal heredity and cultural traditions
5	Produce basic expressive/receptive signing of biographic and autobiographic events
6	Produce basic expressive/receptive signing of number systems – functional & abstract
7	Produce basic expressive/receptive signing of major life activities and special occasions
8	Demonstrate basic knowledge of Deaf Culture
9	Demonstrate basic fluency in receptive and expressive pragmatics and production of fingerspelling in ASL

Required Courses		Outcomes
Course #	Name	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
AM 145	American Sign Language I	X	X	X					X
AM 146	American Sign Language II	X	X	X	X				X
AM 147	American Sign Language III	X	X	X	X	X	X
AM 148	American Sign Language IV	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X
AM 151	Fingerspelling in ASL I										X
AM 152	Fingerspelling in ASL II										X

Assign a value to which each outcome is represented in each required class: 1 = slightly, 2 = moderately, 3 = significantly