

E-HAPPENINGS

WESTERN NEVADA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

July 17-23, 2006

KUDOS

Pride Run Honors Fallen Officers

Honoring those who have given the ultimate sacrifice, 21 Western Nevada Peace Officer Academy cadets ran in formation on Saturday, July 8, from WNCC Carson City to the Nevada Peace Officer's Memorial at the Capitol and back. Students in the college's police officer training program complete the five-mile Pride Run every year to honor law enforcement officers who have given their lives in the line of duty.

COLLEGE CORNER

ADJUNCT ART FACULTY MEMBER SHOWS IN ACLU EXHIBIT

WNCC part-time sculpture instructor Jill Brugler is showing a piece of her own artwork in a group exhibit entitled "What 'art' civil liberties?" sponsored by the American Civil Liberties Union. Brugler's piece, a blue-colored bust entitled "New Orleans Blue," can be seen at the McNamara Gallery at the University of Nevada through August 11.

OUTSTANDING AND HONORED ADMINISTRATIVE FACULTY award nominations are now being accepted. Send nominations by August 11 to Teresa Larson at <mailto:tlarson@wncc.edu>. A committee made up of one faculty member, two administrators, and one classified member will review the nominations and select a winner. The award will be given out Friday, Sept. 15, at the college's annual Employee Recognition Ceremony. For nomination criteria, visit <http://www.wncc.edu/policymanual/13-3-2.htm> - Section 3.

THE 2006-2007 FACULTY/STAFF DIRECTORY will be published soon. Faculty/staff members who would like to add or update their picture in the directory are encouraged to e-mail a picture to Michelle Peltier at legras@wncc.edu or visit the Dini Student Center between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. and have their picture taken. The deadline for submission is July 31.
