

2007-2008 VERIFICATION FORM – Dependent Student

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for a process called “Verification.” In this process, the financial aid office will be comparing the information you provided on your FAFSA with tax forms (see back page for examples of tax forms) and other financial documents. According to federal law, the financial aid office has the right to ask for this documentation before awarding federal student aid. If corrections are required to your FAFSA data, we will electronically reprocess your FAFSA with the revised information and you will receive an acknowledgement from the U.S. Department of Education showing these revisions. Incomplete paperwork will delay the processing of your financial aid award.

What you should do:

- Collect your and your parents’ financial documents (signed federal tax form, W-2 forms, etc).
- If you have questions concerning this form or financial aid, visit the financial aid office for help.
- Fill in and sign the worksheet.
- Bring this completed worksheet to the financial aid office along with your SIGNED tax forms, W-2 forms and any other documents requested as soon as possible so that your financial aid processing can be resumed.
