Summary of Discussion	Nate came to talk to ASWN to say that he is taking some charge with ALAS and their activities. He doesn't want to step on anyone's toes, but he wants to help the college, because it needs that. He wants to solve some problems and answer some questions that will arise from ALAS partnering with other clubs for their easter event. They plan to call the event Spring Festival, or something of that nature. Lilly informs ASWN that the ALAS president has formally resigned and there are other problems with members of the group that Lilly is trying to figure out. So the whole of this public comment is to ask ASWN for some support because an important scholarship is in jeopardy from the easter event falling through. Viri offers her help. Adrian has some questions and asks Nate why they can't go to the Latino Cohort or give the event wholly to the nursing club. Lilly says that they can't do that. Nate explains that the whole point of the event is to raise money for a scholarship. Viri agrees that ASWN should sponsor the event. Lilly suggests that we wait until the 2:30 meeting on Monday.

Agenda Item	Voter Registration
Action Taken	No Formal Action Taken
Summary of Discussion	Jean Laird talks to ASWN about promoting voter registration on campus. she suggests that we set up an online system for people to register to vote when they register for classes. she discusses the ways that people can register: hard copy form, or online with the secretary of state's website or turbovote. her group only addresses important issues, but does not sponsor any candidates. She asks ASWN if we are interested in having a booth on campus for voter registration. Jean also suggests that the members of ASWN become trained to help with voter registration and her group can do that.
